Flexible interiors afford you the luxury of comfort and versatility, while a bold exterior guarantees you arrive in style.

An extra pair of eyes

The Blind Spot Information System (BLIS)¹ uses RADAR sensors to see vehicles that may be hidden in your blind spot. They're situated on either side of your Puma and alert you with an orange light, clearly displayed in the side door mirror.

Wireless Charging

The interior of the Puma is designed to maximise space and convenience. Hassle-free wireless charging is available for compatible smartphones. It's never been easier to make sure your devices are charged up and ready to go.

Safety and Technology

Safety is paramount in every Puma. Loaded with clever technology designed to keep you, your family and other road users protected. Standard across the Ford Puma range is lane keeping aid¹, autonomous emergency braking with pedestrian detection¹, speed sign recognition¹, rear parking sensors¹ and 180-degree split-view reverse camera.¹

Uncompromised Load Space

Designed for more than looking good and feeling great, the Puma provides interior flexibility and storage solutions. The load compartment comfortably offers 410L of capacity with all 5 seats up and 1170L of capacity with the second row of seats folded flat.

Hands-Free Power Tailgate

No more rummaging for your keys, hands-free power tailgate² makes access to your Puma ST-Line load compartment easy, even when your hands are full. Kick your foot under the rear bumper and the hands-free power tailgate opens and closes automatically.
